Para mis hijos, mi esposa, mis padres, mis hermanos y hermanas, mi gente de Vieques y los inmigrantes del mundo. Un agradecimiento especial a la Dra. Frances Spuler.

—SC

A los inmigrantes, para que nunca se olviden de los paisajes de su infancia.

—PT

To my children, my wife, my parents, my brothers and sisters, my people of Vieques and the immigrants of the world. A special thanks to Dr. Frances Spuler.

—SC

To all immigrants, may they never forget their childhood landscapes.

Decía, muy triste, Estrellita desde el gigantesco avión:
—¡Adiós mi preciosa islita, pedazo de mi corazón!

Estrellita was sadly saying
From the window of the giant plane,
"Good-bye my precious, little island, darling piece of my heart!"

Scanned with CamScanner

Me voy, quizás sin saber
cuándo te vuelva a abrazar, pero serás siempre mi querer,
mi todo, mi terruñito sin par.

I am leaving, perhaps without knowing
When I will hug you again,
But you will forever be my beloved,
My everything, beyond compare, my native soil.

Scanned with CamScanner

Doquiera mi vida esté, te voy, cada día, a soñar.
Doquiera mi mente esté,
voy por siempre a recordar:

Wherever my life happens to be,
I shall dream of you everyday.
Wherever my mind happens to be,
I shall forever remember:

El cantar de tu hermoso gallo
dándote los buenos días,
y el trino claro y ufano
de tus inquietas golondrinas.

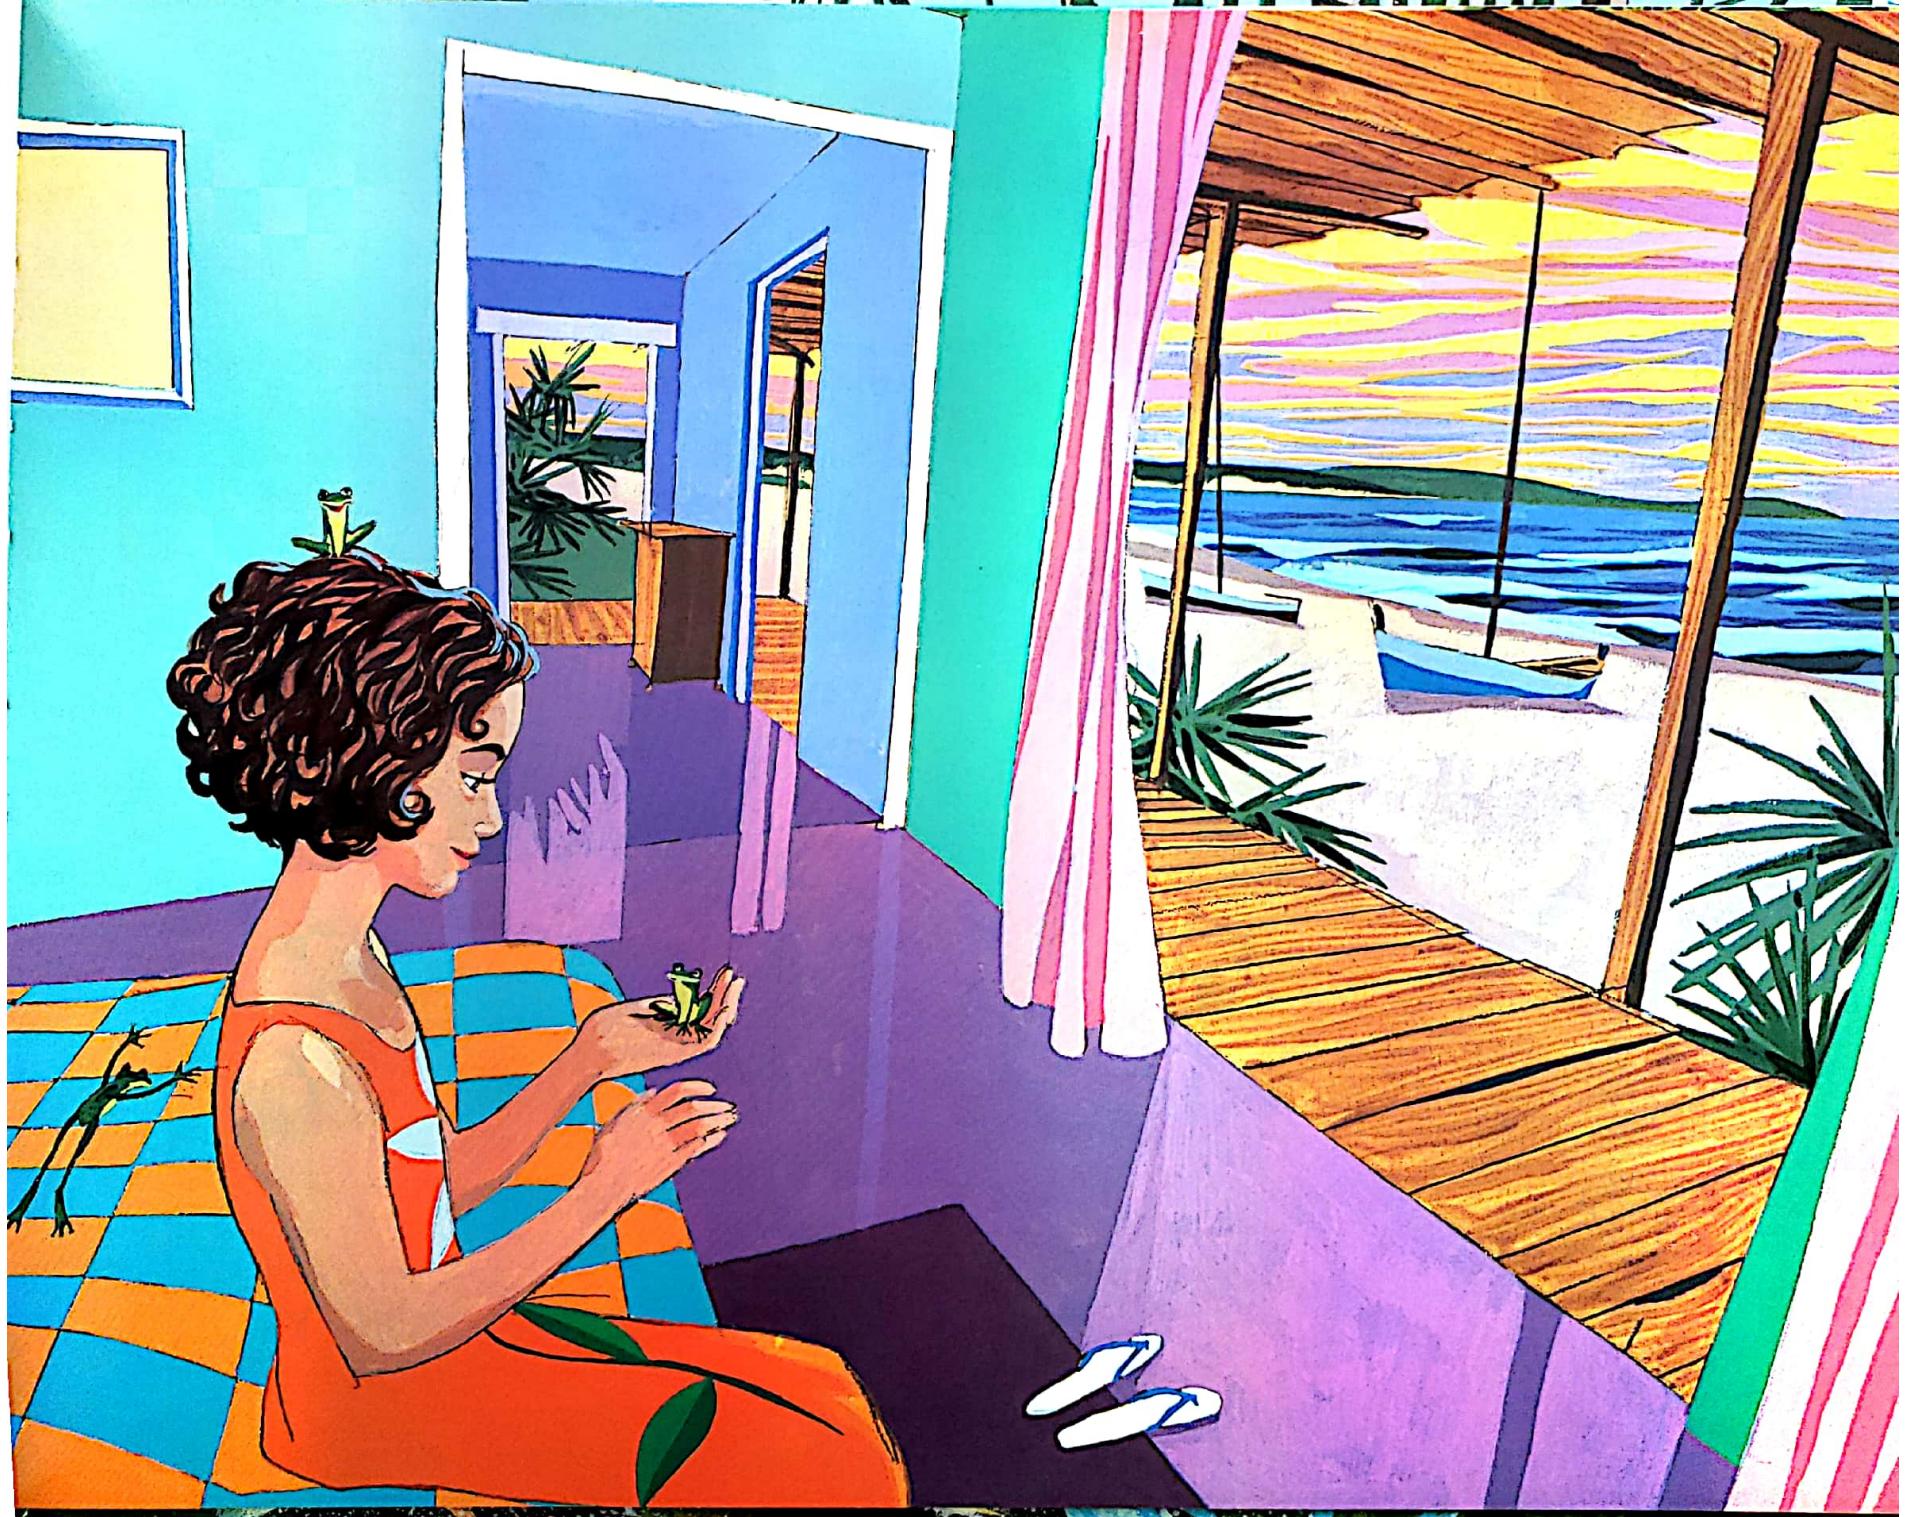

The call of your beautiful rooster
Wishing you good morning,
And the clear and proud warble
Of your restless swallows.

El sonar de tus tibios mares, que me refrescaban el alma,
y tu coquí dulce y galante brincando y retozando en mi cama.

The sound of your warm seas,
That were refreshing to my soul,
And the sweet, gallant coquí
Jumping and frolicking in my bed.

El montaraz cabrito blanco,
con el que yo tanto jugaba,
y el sabor de tu rico mango
y el de tu jugosa guayaba.

The little white mountain goat,
With whom I played so much,
And the taste of your delicious mango
And that of your juicy guava.

El olor de tus nítidos campos
y de tus coloridas praderas, y mis amiguitos correteando en tus misteriosas carreteras.

The scent of your untouched countrysides
And of your colorful prairies,
And my friends romping down
Your mysterious roads.

Tu gente tan linda y alegre bailando plena en las plazas, y el olor del café caliente perfumando sus humildes casas.

Your joyful, beautiful people
Dancing plena in the plazas,
And the aroma of the hot coffee
Scenting their humble homes.

El brillo de tu mágico sol pintando de oro las montañas, y las diáfanas melodías de ilusión de tus finas y famosas guitarras.

The brilliance of your magical sun
Painting your mountains gold,
And the clear melodies of illusion
From your fine and famous guitars.

Scanned with CamScanner

Tu luna de plata iluminando la ruta del barquito de pesca, el bermejo de la aurora acentuando tu verdor y eterna belleza.

Your silver moon illuminating
The route of the little fishing boat,
The bright red of dawn accentuating
Your green and eternal beauty.

Tus cielos, tus ríos, tus encantos, con los que el pintor sueña,
y las gloriosas notas de mármol de tu exquisita canción caribeña.

Your skies, your rivers, your charm
All of which the painter dreams,
And the glorious marble notes
Of your exquisite Caribbean song.

¡Y el tierno, angelical abracito de mi abuelita Panchita quien, como tú, es mi amorcito, mi luz y mi valiosa perlita!

And the tender, angelic hug
Of my grandma Panchita
Who, like you, is my little love,
My light and my precious little pearl!"

Samuel Caraballo nació en Vieques, una pequeña y hermosa isla en las afueras de la costa este de Puerto Rico. Pasó muchos días de su niñez jugando en las colinas del campo y recogiendo mangos y guayabas, sus frutas tropicales favoritas. Ha dedicado muchos años a la enseñanza del español, su idioma nativo, en varias escuelas públicas de los Estados Unidos. En la actualidad, vive en Virginia con su esposa y uno de sus hijos. Le fascina la pintura, la pesca y escribir poesía.

Samuel Caraballo was born in Vieques, a gorgeous tiny island located off the East Coast of Puerto Rico. He spent many of his childhood days playing in the countryside hills and picking mangos and guavas, his favorite tropical fruits. He has dedicated many years to teaching Spanish, his native language, in several public schools in the United States. He presently lives in Virginia with his wife and one of his children. He loves painting, fishing and writing poetry.

Pablo Torrecilla se crió en Madrid, España. En los fines de semana, visitaba el pueblo de su familia donde admiraba los puestos en la plaza del mercado, las fragancias y la gente. Estos colores y fragancias se convirtieron en su inspiración. Ha dibujado y pintado desde que tenía sólo cinco años de edad. Pablo intenta sentir lo que los personajes experimentan para expresar sus emociones. Ahora, Pablo vive en California, donde se divierte volando su papalote, jugando fútbol, escuchando música y leyendo libros en inglés, su nuevo idioma.

Pablo Torrecilla grew up in Madrid, Spain. On the weekends, he would visit his family's hometown where he admired the displays in the market, the scents and the people. These colors and scents became his inspiration. He has been drawing and painting since he was only five years old. Pablo tries to feel what the characters experience in order to express their emotions. He now lives in California, where he enjoys flying his kite, playing soccer, listening to music and reading books in English, his new language.
